Purpose

Sparkling Resort wanted to upgrade their sound system throughout their entire facility. They needed reliable products for background music and paging systems that offered intelligible sound for their guests to understand. The products had to be eye pleasing and blend well into the facility's interior style.

Challenge

Finding the right design and speaker combination for the different zones of this big resort. As a full upgrade, TOA tech and design team created a full design proposal that was approved by the management.

Solution

Using the design details provided by TOA the integrator easily installed the sound and paging system throughout the resort and adjusted all of the settings until the resort was satisfied with the sound emanating from the sound system. The TOA products recommended suited the needs of the resort without going overboard.

Feedback

The resulting sound covered the entire resort with clear and intelligible sound so guests can easily hear the messages. By choosing TOA products for the entire system, the installation process was quickly done. The resort was very satisfied with the performance of the TOA products they were recommended.
